HAVE YOU USED THE PEOPLES CORNER YET?

The Advertiser would call the attention of its readers to the very useful corner on page 4, the People's Corner. This column is what its name indicates, a place where wants are made known and exchanges effected, where transient notices of business or municipal interest appear, where lost and found articles find the owners and should be read carefully by everyone. Neglect to look over this column may result in financial loss or other untoward results.

Your Duty To Attend

It is the duty of every citizen to attend the annual meeting on Monday evening next to hear the councillors, and perhaps the trustees, give an account of their stewardship.
If there be any praise, if there be any blame, if there be any questioning, this meeting is the place for it.

Five-Mile

Mike Frederickson, Ole J. Berg and Thor Barley went to the Hills this week in search of big game.
Woe to the deer that gets in front of any of their friends. He will have the scare of his life.

Mrs. Ole Finstad left this week for Minneapolis where she will spend the winter.

The Alberta Sunshine Club entertained the members of the Prairie View Club at the home of Mrs.
John Fraser last week.

The Ladies' Aid of the Lutheran Church will hold the turkey shoot which was postponed on account of the snowstorm, on Saturday, Nov.
28th.

Mrs. John Robertson will hold a turkey shoot on Saturday next, Nov. 28th.

The members of the local sunshine club took up a collection of vegetables for Mrs. Vatsky last week.

CLARESHOLM AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE NOTES

"If mother were to see me now!" Decorated on both cheeks with the letter "P" in bright green verdant paint, accented in many places with make-up and unusual feminine clothes, leg-attached to another by a string making a good imitation of the look-steps the only means of locomotion, through the main streets of the town, marching to the music of the drum band, escorted by a howling guard of second year students, the freshmen of the School of Agriculture paraded the streets of the town and furnished amusement for the citizens and for the small boys who followed the procession as the tail, the kite. It was the culminating indignity imposed upon them in the ceremony of initiation, and was only so indicted after the freshmen had lost out in a pitched battle on the College campus. It took some of the older men back to their own school days when an occasion like that of this afternoon was entered into seriously as an "open sesame" to the intimate social life of the class, when at its end the hand of soph or senior would raise one to the higher and much-to-be-desired fellowship. The boys of the School of Agriculture are keeping up the old traditions.

Ernie Buckingham, a first year student, suffered the fracture of his collarbone in the fracas of initiation.

Had the first year not been divided by the guile of the second year there would have been a harder nut to crack.

Hanson, Beet as a jack-rabbit, could not be overtaken even by a second year on homeback. But his time will surely come.

A Name Omitted.

In the Honor Roll, the name of Capt. Chas. H. Westmore was omitted. Capt. Westmore is commissioned lieutenant in the signalling corps with the 31st battalion.

Rev. John White, B.A. of Roland, Man. has been called to the pastorate of the Macleod Presbyterian church.

Claresholm and District

Chas. P. Hay, of Clear Lake, was a Claresholm visitor on Wednesday.
Thos. Moore and daughter, Grace, of the '41, went to Calgary on Tuesday evening.

Wm. Lister, of Carstairs, arrived on Monday night to take a position on the Advertiser staff.

Mrs. J. Doyle, who has been severely ill for the past two weeks, is up and around again.

H. A. Dawson, Jas. J. Watson and Ray Patterson were in from the Hills on Monday.

Miss Jessie Parr, formerly of Stavely* has opened a dressmaking parlor next door to M. Fisher's store.

Frank Macdonald, provincial manager for the London and Lancashire Life, was in town on business this week.

Dr. Warnock, M.P., intimated to the Macleod Spectator, that if the war prolonged, he would likely go to the front.

They have a little oil boom all their own up Peace River way.
The Little and Big Smoky rivers is the district upon which filing is being made.

The Private Greeting Cards for which The Advertiser is now taking orders are "Made In Canada." Patronize the product of your own country.

James Blackwood, manager of the Union Bank of Barons, was married at Knox church, Calgary, to Miss Margaret Thompson. They will reside at Barons.

Misses Rogers and Lppard gave a farewell dinner on Monday evening for R. M. Larson who was to leave on Thursday with the volunteers for the 31st battalion.

Mrs. A. J. Burnside will receive for the first time since coming to Claresholm on Thursday afternoon, Nov. 26th, and thereafter on the fourth Thursday of every month.

Miss Gordon, recently assistant to Postmaster Simpson, left on Thursday for Vancouver where she will take a course of training for a nurse's diploma.

Miss Nellie Gray, a nurse at the Galt Hospital, Lethbridge, and who has just undergone an operation for appendicitis, is now very ill from an attack of typhoid. Her mother, Mrs. G. B. Gray, is in attendance upon her daughter.

Mrs. J. W. Colley and child left on Saturday for Beardsley, Minn., where she will make a extended visit with her parents. Mr. Colley is severing his connection with the L.H.C., for which company he has been a collector for some time and will join his wife and family in Minnesota later.

Mark Turnbull, who has been with the Hardwick Ranch for some time, left on Wednesday of this week for St. Andrew's, Scot. His return to the old country was made necessary by the going of a brother from the old home to the war.

Swell the Patriotic Fund

The Advertiser is in hearty sympathy with the aim and objects of the Patriotic Fund. With the purpose of assisting in the increasing of this fund, The Advertiser will give 50 cents out of each $1.50 paid for a year's subscription to The Advertiser. Those who are in arrears should pay up promptly and thus help out the Fund to the extent of 33 1/3 per cent of the amount so paid. The Advertiser is making some sacrifices as $1.50 does not pay the actual cost of producing the paper but all are ready and willing for such a sacrifice. Aid the Fund by promptly remitting the publisher halfway in this matter. This offer will hold good for the month of November. We have nearly 1,000 names on our lists. See what this will mean to the Fund, if all were to pay arrears or renew for one year.

Wish To Collect Contributions

The Committee of the Claresholm Patriotic Society would be obliged if all those who promised contributions at the recent Patriotic Meeting would hand the amounts to the treasurer G. Simpson or to secretary Watt or to either the banks.

Mountain Peak.

Barney Bestor has his new house about completed. No doubt, the bird has already been examined that will occupy this snug nest.

Howard Wright has received the gold watch that was given by a Carmangay jeweler as a prize for the exhibitor winning the most prizes in live-stock at the recent fair in live-stock.

Harry Dow has moved into Claresholm for the winter.

The Mountain Peak U.F.A. are expecting a car of coal at Stavely almost any day.

Several from this neighborhood will attend the dance at the Clear Lake School on Friday night.

Miss J. Fleming, the teacher of the school here, is making splendid progress in the preparations for the Xmas entertainment at the school.

Hogs which have the wanderlust in this neighborhood have set two of the neighbors at loggerheads.
The matter will be aired before the coun court.

Mike Ferguson and James Johnson are occupying the house lately vacated by Mrs. J. A. Chasner and family. Mrs. Chasner has gone to her father's, S. Mortimore, for the winter.

Wm. Foose, returning home from the dance the other night, had the misfortune to drive into a telephone pole and as the pole would not move, the buggy was damaged. No harm came to the occupants of the rig.

Tommy Will Smoke Up

In response to the call of the London (Eng.) Daily Mail for the support of a Tobacco Fund for the soldiers and sailors of the Empire, Marjorie and Eric Leeds have collected $175 for this fund and the amount has been forwarded through the Canadian Bank of Commerce.
For every shilling contributed, a packet containing a quarter lb. of cigars, 30 cigarettes and a box of matches will be sent to every soldier. These youthful collectors wish to acknowledge the receipt of subscriptions from the following:
Wm. Moffatt, R. E. Moffatt, G. M.
Bonds, A. E. Strange, Mrs. Watt, Mrs. Davies, E. Leeds, Mrs. C. Leeds, M. Leeds, C. Rempin, A. E. Thompson, Geo. Simpson, J. M. Soly, J. R.
Watt, M. Hood, Jos. Giroux, T. C.

White, H. O. Haslam, W. Power, J.
Wells, T. A. Price, B. F. Sweeney, M. Ross, J. Manquett, J. H. Walton, Inglis, Tucker, W. A. Lyndon, A. H.
Tovell, G. Gillies, W. MacDuff, E.
Smith, A. J. Burnside, Mrs. Mitchell, D. B. Vanhorn, D. H. Ramag J. A. Mackay, F. Murray, T. C. Leeds.

Exonerated by Judge

Hutton and Neville were exonerated by Judge McCarthy in the hearing of the charge of cattle-stealing. The judge seemed to think that the complaint in the case was attempting to use the criminal courts for the settlement of a debt.
The case has created considerable interest since the first act, in the comedy last July. The friends of these men, who are Stavely business men, will be pleased that the case has had this outcome.

73 Years Young

Sir Wilfrid Laurier was seventy-three years young on Friday, Nov.
20th. From 1887 to 1896, he was the Liberal leader in the cool shades of opposition. From 1896 to 1911, he led his party in the administration of the affairs of the Dominion of Canada with signal success.
Since the defeat of his party in Sept. 1911, he has retained the leadership with a loyal following who are proud of the old chief.
Time has not proven the high sincerity of his purpose, the consistency of his political principles, the integrity of his public and private life, the first-sightness of his vision of statesmanship, the democracy of his Liberalism, the courage and faith of his Canadianism and the sanity of his Imperialism.

Xmas Nearing

While there is nothing about the weather suggestive of the approach of the Christmas season, some of the shop windows are beginning to assume a Christmasy appearance.
The collection of toys in the window of the local furniture dealer is reminiscent of the joyous anniversary.
The "Community" girl in the window of the local jeweler is an object of attraction to the passersby. Orders are being taken for Xmas trees by local dealers in these indepen-dable decorations. The use of the shop window is a splendid businessimprover. The columns of the Advertiser afford an extension of the shop window, bringing to the homes of its readers what some of them have not seen or might not see. Talk your Xmas wares to the people of this district in their homes through these columns. The Claresholm Advertiser claims, and can sustain its claim, that it enters one-third more homes in the Clares-holm district than any competitor.
See. Talk your Xmas wares to the people of this district in their homes through these columns.

Major W. C. Bryan, of Macleod, of the reserve of the 23rd Alberta Rangers was seated on the platform Wednesday evening with his son W. C. Bryan, who has enlisted and gone to Calgary with the Clares-holm quota.
